

Brad Jones

Brad@Jones.name :e-mail
303-931-1195 :voice

Work Experience

03/07 – 02/11

Managing editor, FaceTheState.com

Managed an investigative news organization with a $300k/year budget covering Colorado state and local politics. Oversaw a 3 person newsroom; developed a 10-station radio syndication network; wrote, produced and hosted daily radio programs including a one-hour weekly news magazine; edited copy and managed story development; made regular appearances on local and national news outlets to promote stories. Engineered live, satellite-delivered election night network. Managed all back-office functions including HR, IT, and accounting. Managed client relationships with advertisers, syndication partners, and affiliates. Site featured in 2008 on DrugeReport.com; Westword's "Best Political Blog" winner two years in a row.

01/06 – Present

Principal, Brad Jones LLC

Media and public affairs consulting. Audio and video production, Web site development, custom IT installations and general political consulting including a 2006 state House race.

03/05 – 01/06

Vice-President, Colorado Civil Justice League

Managed membership-development effort and internal/external communications for Colorado's civil justice reform coalition. Provided support to the organization's board of directors and contract lobbyist. Prepared briefing papers on legislation. Event planning and association management.

05/04 – 08/06

Radio Host, KNRC-AM 1150 (Denver, CO) and 1310 KFKA-AM (Greeley, CO)

2004

Field staffer, Bob Schaffer for United States Senate

2000 – 2001

Technical director, Arlington Educational Television (Arlington, Virginia)

On-air switching and media coordination for "Spanish for Educators," a DOE-funded satellite-fed program for K-12 school teachers learning workplace spanish.

Education

University of Colorado at Boulder
B.A., Communication

Activities and Community Involvement

Member, Supervisory Committee – Elevations Credit Union, Boulder, CO

07/06 – Present

Volunteer EMT with Northglenn Ambulance, Inc., Northglenn and Commerce City, CO

2006

Research Assistant, Independence Institute (Colorado Free-Market think tank)

Media, Honors & Awards

Eagle Scout, Boy Scouts of America

Featured as a newsmaker or analyst on:

850 KOA, Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News, Fox News, NPR, CBC Radio, Washington Times

Skills & technologies

Editorial:

Strong English skills, AP style
Radio/video digital ENG
Breaking news writing
Pre-produced and live talk radio

Computer technologies:

LAMP Web development stack
Standards-compliant HTML
Basic Linux system management
Office network management
DAW editing (strong Cubase skill)
Basic Final Cut Pro